BROCKWAY HITS.

On Thursday evening Nov 9th the Begole rooster crowed loud and long in this place until he got so warm over the big blazing fire the men and boys built that it was found necessary to get Jack Jordan's ax to stop the racket.

Jas Pearce and C. Cooper, of Brockway Centre were in town last week.

The K. O. T. M's of this place gave an entertainment on Wednesday evening last. A goodly number attended. Hugh McGee is at present visiting in New York state.

The work on Thos Martin's new house is progressing finely under the management of Wm Moore.

E. A. Gustin is busy constructing a dwelling house for Mrs John Cotton. We are afraid that Bert will whip his fingers a number of times before he gets it enclosed. Tyno.

Mindest Murmurings.

Winter is upon us. The Lord bless the rich the poor can beg.

Happy is the man whose neighbor has a good pile of wood for he shall be remembered by day and night.

The Editor of the "Huron Tribune" is throwing his wads at the prohibitionists of Ohio and Mich for voting as they thought best. The history of no political party can show such rapid growth as the prohibitionists. Governor St John of Kansas for president in 1884 and don't you forget it.

Rev Thomas Stalker of Port Huron gave his lecture "Looking for a man" to a large audience in the M. E. church last Tuesday evening. It was highly appreciated.

The M. E. church of Sandusky Sanilac Co was dedicated last Thursday Nov 17. The morning sermon was preached by the Rev Thos Stalker in the evening Rev O. Whitmore preached. An indebtedness of $105, was provided for and the church dedicated free of debt.

Miss Bettos from St Ignace is visiting with her brother Rev J. Bettos a few days in Minden.

Wm Garlick is clerking for James Erskin & Co.

It is suspected that Richard O'Keefe has gone to get himself a helpmate. He has finished his house. Among the individuals to be dispensed, are the old bachelors. SCRIBA.

Margo Cleanings.

A. Fraser made us a friendly call this week.

The supper and entertainment given at the residence of H. Allen for the benefit of Elder Riley was a grand success, both in the way of entertainment and financially. Miss McFavish rendered some fine music on the organ and recited a few beautiful pieces in an able manner. Mr Savell did some good execution on the organ also. We give the people of the Kenosha class great credit for their good cooking. The ministers of Brockway Centre missed a great treat by not doing as they agreed but we do not know what they had on hand. Elder Riley looked well pleased when they handed him $51.44 proceeds of the evening, but then he deserves it for he has worked hard since he has been on this circuit.

Our school commenced this morning with Miss Ellen Farr as teacher.

Miss Ada Locke is at Speaker visiting with her parents.

Our mill is receiving another run of stone. Mr Brown of Ruby is doing the work.

Either the Editor or the correspondent at Fargo made a bad mistake in regard to "renting a wagon maker." It should have read "we want to rent a shop to a good wagon maker."

Albert Crocker's little daughter is recovering slowly from a long illness.

Chas Farr has had about 20 tons of hay pressed and intends to ship the same to Saginaw. The hay pressers are at work at Mr Twichell's to-day. Yours & Monoc.

CAPAC NEWS.

From the Eagle.

A little daughter of C. B. Smith is sick with typhoid fever. It is hoped she will recover.

W. F. Parker, returned from a visit with relatives in New York state, Tuesday morning.

Mrs C. B. Craven, of Seymour Lake, Mich., is visiting her parents, Mr and Mrs J. B. Cavanaugh.

Those new crossings between the Allen house and Northern, are good ones, and a decided improvement to that locality.

Charley Praker finished up a week's visit at this place and returned to his position in the Sun office at Ft Gratiot on Wednesday morning.

Mrs E. Warren, who has been sick with the diphtheria for some time is now recovering. Mrs C. F. Baado and Mrs A. J. West are also recovering from their recent illness.

Miss Abbie Hosmer and Miss Ida Bottomley, of this place, left Tuesday morning for an extended visit with relatives and friends in Pontiac and vicinity.

The new addition to H. C. Siegle's carriage factory is about completed, and when the building has received its allotted coat of paint will present a fine appearance and be a decided improvement to this part of town.

Additional Expositions.

—Mrs Minnie Williams, of Ogemaw Co., is visiting her relatives in this vicinity.

—H. S. Wait has just finished the work of painting the new altar of the Knights of Honor and it is a neat job.

—J. S. Duffie has men at work putting another coat of rubber paint on the roof of his building.

—A farmer named Abbot, was seriously if not fatally injured at Yorks station, Tuesday morning. He was standing on the platform of the Narrow Gauge depot, and as the fast Saginaw express was coming, he attempted to cross the track to his team standing opposite and was struck by the pilot of the engine, suffering internal injuries that may terminate fatally.

—WANTED—A new barber, one who can be found when a person wants something done. It is impossible to find the one we have at present in his shop more than ten minutes at a time. He shaves some of his best customers. Other parties who would be willing to patronize him do their own shaving for this same reason. Only the other day two men went to the shop, one wanted a shave the other a hair cut, and waited about an hour but nothing could they find of our barber. We think this has gone far enough and if our citizens will only get together and say they want a new barber we will endeavor to get one. We will do the advertising free in order to.
